FATHER WILLIAM'S GENEROSITY

Many new soldiers arrived during the past week and Camp Zachary Taylor is very much overcrowded. There are about 25,000 men now in tents, as the barracks are needed for the drafted men who came in during the past few days. It was rather hard on the new recruits who arrived Friday night, as it was raining hard when they left their train, and K. C. building No. 3 was not large enough to accommodate them all. Father McAvoy, who has been stationed as a Knight of Columbus chaplain at building No. 2 for the past few weeks, left for his home in Milwaukee on Sunday, and Father Gallagher, who was at the auditorium, has been transferred to Camp Meade. This leaves Camp Taylor without a K. C. chaplain, but the spiritual work is well handled by Lieut. Barrett and the priests at the chaplains' school, who number 103. The chaplains are very enthusiastic about the Knights of Columbus work at the camp, and give all of their spare time attending to the wants of the soldiers.

One of the prettiest affairs held at Camp Zachary Taylor since its opening was the military wedding of Lieut. John E. Hines and Miss Blanche C. Ridlen both of El Paso, Texas, who were married Wednesday night after the usual weekly vaudeville show. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Barrett on the stage of the auditorium and furnished a surprise for the 900 men who packed the building. The bridal party expected a quiet wedding in the sacristy, but Chaplain Barrett opened the altar and drew back the heavy drapery so that all present could be witnesses of the affair. The attendants were Miss Jessie Bannon and Major Reed, and the wedding march was played by Miss Mary Clines. No sooner had the audience realized that this was not a stage wedding than an instant hush came over the entire assembly and the solemnity of the ceremony was deeply felt. Not a sound was heard in the vast auditorium until Chaplain Barrett congratulated the bride and groom. Then the audience immediately broke into a loud and long cheer for the newly married couple. J. Forrest Thompson, Louisville's well known entertainer, came on the stage and the soldiers sang the artillery calsoons song as the bridal party left the altar. The candles were extinguished, the draperies were drawn back into place and the vaudeville show continued. The impression made upon the soldiers by the wedding ceremony was heartfelt in many instances, as several of them remarked after the wedding.

The vaudeville show given before and after the wedding was probably the best that has been seen at the camp for a long time. All of the K. C. stars were on the bill, which included Miss Ella Red, Pouch sisters, Ethel Landen, Miss Lillian Trudean, J. Forrest Thompson, Tom Kennedy and Miss Mary Clines. In addition to these entertainers the soldier performers were J. L. Anderson, roller skate expert; Sergt. Hyde, a card wizard of wonderful talent; Corp. Jimmie Eggett and Sergt. Al Rauch, who were received with great enthusiasm.

On this same night at building No. 5 the juvenile entertainers from Holy Cross church, under the direction of Mrs. Leslie Thurman, gave a programme of eleven numbers, which was enjoyed by a packed house. These little entertainers were all very talented and the soldiers applauded them many times. They will be back again at some other of the buildings in the near future, and the K. C. secretary staff is hoping they will join the circuit and help entertain the men during the coming winter.

At building No. 2 the colored troops were entertained Thursday night with a minstrel show, the men of the 801st Pioneer Infantry furnishing the talent. Building No. 2 for the colored troops is about as busy as any building at Camp Taylor, and the men certainly seem to appreciate what the Knights of Columbus are trying to do for their comfort and entertainment. The three colored Secretaries are hard workers and are very much interested in their work. Friday night at this building a "buck and wing" dancing contest was held and several boxing bouts indulged in.

Over at building No. 3 the new men crowded in witness the musical show given by Little Martha Spanniger, Sergt. Cook, Eileen O'Neill, and several others on Friday night. In all there were about sixty-five entertainers who worked at the Knights of Columbus activity centers during the past week. Most of them will be back during the coming week but at different buildings. Too much praise can not be given to these people who come out to entertain the soldiers, as it is a great undertaking for the Knights of Columbus, but the appreciation of

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

Brother Ignatius, of the Xaverian Order of Brothers, has been selected as President of St. Joseph's College at Bardstown, succeeding Brother Fidells, who has been transferred to Baltimore. The new President is a Kentuckian, born at New Haven, and is a gentleman of pleasing personality, scholarly attainments, and has won quite a reputation as an orator. Under his guidance St. Joseph's College should take its old stand as being one of the greatest institutions of learning in this part of the country. For two years Brother Ignatius was President of Old Point Comfort College and for twelve years was President of St. Mary's Academy at Norton.

At the request of Rev. Brother Isadore, Provincial of the Xaverian Brothers, Rev. M. R. Donohue, the chaplain of St. Joseph's College, has accepted the position of chaplain in the Juniorate of the order. Father Donohue left Bardstown this week to take up his new duties at Old Point Comfort College, Fort Monroe.

The flag will consist of twenty-two stars, ten being in the service in this country and twelve in overseas service. The Boy Scout division of Shelbyville will take part and a musical concert will be given by a military band from Camp Zachary Taylor. Rev. Father Riley and his parishioners can well be congratulated over the proud showing of their little congregation. Following is the programme that will be rendered:

STATE FAIR MUSIC.

The sixteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of September 9-14, will boast in Thavu's Band of forty musicians, one of the greatest musical organizations ever appearing at a State Fair. The Thavu organization is made up of forty splendidly trained musicians, who are arrayed in military regalia, and accompanying it is a coterie of solo artists of international repute, together with a galaxy of ballet dancers, who are said to be terpsichorean wonders and fully up to the coryphees support of Pavlova, Genevieve or Ruth St. Denis. Thavu's Band was one of the sixteen great organizations which played at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and it was the only one commissioned to play a return engagement. As a traveling organization it has visited all the principal cities of the United States and has invariably received a contract for a return engagement.

VISITING THEIR PARENTS.

James and Edward Whalen, sons of Mr. and Mrs. David Whalen, West Broadway, who are serving their country in the Marine Corps and now stationed at Paris Island, have been spending a short furlough with their friends and relatives here. James has only recently returned from Santo Domingo, and both expect to be soon with our forces in France. Mr. and Mrs. Whalen have four sons with the colors, and the number may soon be increased to five. Both boys are pleased with military life and say the Marines are the class of the American forces.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

The marriage of Miss Suzanne O'Neill and Joseph Percy Abell, First Lieutenant, United States Army, stationed with the 814th Pioneer Infantry at Camp Zachary Taylor, was solemnized quietly Monday afternoon at St. Francis of Rome church, Father White performing the ceremony. Messrs. Marion Abell, of Lebanon, brother of the groom, and Paul O'Neill, brother of the bride, were the only attendants. Lieut. Abel and Mrs. Abell, after a short stay in Chicago, will return to their apartment at Second and Breckinridge.

OFFERING OF JESUITS.

Rev. Joseph H. Rockwell, S. J., the new Provincial of the New York-Maryland province of the Jesuits, has tendered to President Wilson the use of all the Jesuit institutions in the province that may be needed for Government purposes and also the services of 1,000 Jesuit fathers as teachers. President Wilson, Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels have acknowledged the offer in letters, saying the offer is one of the most generous made to the Government since the nation entered the war.

GOV. STANLEY

For United States Senator Proves Impervious Against Attacks.

Near Mayor Smith Appears in the Role of Keystone Detective.

Chief Petty Inconsistently Leads Detachment of Mounted Police.

KEYSTONERS CAN'T RUN FORD

roll call and promised they would get more money when the rest of the "gold dermed" Democrats were gotten rid of.

Chief Petty has been trying to substitute a "flivver" patrol for the mounted men and Sunday night the Henry Ford got away from two of the Keystoners at Twenty-third and Magazine, and after a wild dash out Twenty-third street ran up on the pavement and into a yard, smashing everything in sight and greatly damaging the "flivver." The two Keystoners were badly shaken up, but nothing was given to the papers, contrary to the statement that the Chief made early this year that the public would always be in on the news. We hope the Chief won't be hard on the burlesque policemen, as he must realize it is a little more difficult to steer Ford than a street car as the car will stay on the track, and harder than following the flivver behind a plow. The other day people were mystified to see a man on Fourth street with a twenty-foot rope monkeying around automobiles and the report got out that a crazy man was at large. The spectators say he would first lasso a fire hydrant and then gravely step off several paces, paying no attention to the gaping and wondering crowd. Finally a Keystone policeman came along and assisted in playing the game with him, it leaking out then that the bug in citizen's clothes was a Keystone detective looking for violators of the law pertaining to the location of gas attack were used to dislodge Gov. Stanley as Democracy's selection, but the result was that he came through it all stronger than ever and will lead the party to victory in November. Percy Haly worked overtime with his mythical army of 250,000 Democrats and even tried to revive the old liquor gag as an issue, but all to no purpose, and the charge that Gov. Stanley was a weak candidate in 1915 only served to call attention to the attempted betrayal of the Forward Leaguers and fake prohibitionists who took part in the Democratic primary but bolted the nominee. None of the possible appointees for the short Senatorial term are as strong as Louisville's choice for the honor, and as clean cut Democrat, a campaigner of ability and asset to the party it is hoped that Gov. Stanley will see that he will be clear to selecting A. Scott Bullitt for the appointment. A graduate of Princeton, a former student of President Wilson's, and one wide awake to the issues of today, Kentucky would have an able representative in Mr. Bullitt.

Gov. Stanley will have no trouble in defeating Dr. Turner, the Republican nominee, in November by a normal Democratic majority, and Bruner will only receive half-hearted support here in his home town, as rumor credits Seay with being unfriendly to the doctor, and Mayor Scarce (no, that is Mayor is not a slip, Scarce being the real Mayor) is not going to sell in his whole stock to Bruner with the Federal authorities to edification of the Mayor, the daily papers told how our near Mayor Smith was out at the Confederate monument Sunday looking for violators of the Fuel Commissioner's request, and he proudly reports that he spied twenty-five or thirty culprits. Can you beat that? The Mayor of a great big town like Louisville out playing the part of a Podunk constable. This is in line with his stunt at the opening of the baseball season, when he did the clown juggling act at Eclipse Park, much to the edification of the Keystone police who can see through slapstick performances. This prompts the suggestion why not let the people of Louisville raise a fund to pay Smith's salary for the balance of the term, allowing us to get a real Mayor, and then make him one of the Keystone police, where he can perform to his heart's delight.

The Bolshevik administration gives out much guff about how well the Board of Works is handling the garbage question and they secured negro maids for horse maids, but never a line about how much Davy's board paid for the houseboat, or what they are going to do with it now that they have it, etc. Has anyone heard of anyone using the houseboat or of anyone that wants to use it? We have heard of crying demands for the Board of Works to clean the streets and alleys and gather the garbage, but we still have to hear from anybody that wanted a houseboat. Come on, Messrs. Rose, Brumley and Miller tell us a little of the houseboat mystery. Who sold it to us and what will it cost to keep it and will one of the board's $4,950 trucks have to carry coal to it during the coming hard winter?

Well, Chief of Police Petty is mighty inconsistent or he took the tip that the mounted police was a good advertisement for the city. Not long ago the Chief loudly proclaimed that he was going to do away with the mounted police, that they were out of date, no good, etc., seeing possibly that his Keystone police as mounted men were a huge joke. Presto! who rides at the head of the mounted men in the labor parade Monday? None other than the Chief in full uniform, but the aggregation of straggling ex-motormen and conductors coming behind him weren't no boost for a mounted force, as the Keystone boys only made everybody sneaker at their attempt to sit straight on their horses and keep in line. It's too late, Chief, the real police have been allowed to go, and with the exception of a few there is no material to make either mounted or foot patrolmen out of the Keystone performers, whose past experience consisted of clanging a bell, jerking a rope and calling out the wrong street. Speaking of the few real policemen left, they say one of the Lieutenants in the West End, a former motorman, addressed his fellow Keystone the other night at

HURT BY AUTO.

Miss Kate Hickey was struck by an automobile driven by Dave Warren on Tuesday evening at Hancock and Market streets, sustaining a sprain of her left shoulder and numerous painful bruises of the body. The front wheels of the machine passed over Miss Hickey's left shoulder. She was given medical attention and then removed to her home at 1246 South Floyd street, where she is resting easy.

JOHN VERNIA DEAD.

John Vernia, an old and respected resident of New Albany, died Tuesday afternoon at St. Joseph's Infirmary. His death was due to kidney trouble, from which he had suffered for a number of years. Mr. Vernia had served two terms in the New Albany City Council. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Charles Vernia, and a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Foley. His funeral was held Friday morning from Holy Trinity church, of which he was a pioneer member and regular communicant.

VISIT LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Mrs. Mary Arthur, of Indianapolis, and Miss Lulu Murphy, State President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, will be present here at the meeting of the local branch next Wednesday evening in connection with the organization of a national benefit feature.

GOOD FOR HILL.

Richard Hill, for many years with the Illinois Central railroad at Seventh and the river, was this week placed in the union ticket office of the United States Railroad administration at Fourth and Market. He has a legion of friends and acquaintances who will be pleased to learn of his good luck. Mr. Hill succeeds Thomas Neafus, who was recently drafted into the United States army.

FIRST HIGH MASS.

Last Sunday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Syracuse two young men, one of them a native of St. Paul's parish, this city, were raised to the priesthood when the Very Rev. Leo Greulich, Minister Provincial of the Minor Order of Conventuals, presented the Rev. Andrew Maas and the Rev. Paschal Murray to the Right Rev. John Grimes, Bishop of Syracuse. Rev. Maas was born, baptized and made his first holy communion and spent his boyhood days in St. Paul's parish. Six years ago he entered St. Francis College and completed his studies at Rensselaer Seminary. Tomorrow morning he will sing his first high mass in St. Paul's, his home church, and will be assisted by the Franciscan fathers from St. Anthony's and St. Peter's churches. Father Murray is well remembered and will be doubtless greeted by a large congregation, who will receive his blessing.

JUBILEE OF BROTHER.

Rev. Brother Camillus, of St. Xavier's College, last Sunday had a happy silver jubilee celebration of his entrance into that great teaching order, and also was the recipient of many congratulations. Born in Kentucky, Brother Camillus entered the Xavier Brotherhood at the age of twenty, and made his novitiate and scholastic at Mt. St. Joseph's College, Baltimore, the mother house of the American province. After completing his scholastic work he went to England, where he taught in various Xavier schools for nearly fifteen years. Returning to this country he taught at Portsmouth and Wheeling, and for the past five years has been stationed at St. John's school, this city. The ceremonies which enhanced the jubilee celebration began on Sunday morning with a high mass. Rev. Father Victor, chaplain of St. Xavier's, was the celebrant of the mass. The army chaplains, Rev. Father McGuire, of Canton, Mass., and Father Byrnes, of Altoona, who are attending the chaplains' training school at Camp Taylor, were present. After the religious celebration a banquet was served at the college at noon.

MEETING OF GRADUATES.

A meeting has been called at St. Xavier's College for this evening and tomorrow at 7 o'clock to discuss the new army regulations in regard to students. Up to this time only college graduates have had the preference of becoming officers, but now this privilege is extended to all high school graduates over eighteen years of age. Graduates of all recognized high schools are admitted into this Students' Army Training Corps. The meeting is to enable St. Xavier's graduates to make proper selection of schools and young men should realize the splendid offer made by the Government. They will receive board, tuition and education free, besides regular army uniform and the pay of a private-$30 per month. High school graduates who do not avail themselves of this opportunity will be required to enlist as privates in the army. It is well for them to register in some recognized college before September 12.

GERMANY AND VATICAN.

Owing to the reluctance of the Pope, as the spiritual father of multitudes in all the warring lands, to declare himself specially on one side or the other in the war, currency has been given the report that his sentiments are impartial and even that his favor inclined toward the Germans. This impression is corrected in a vigorous article in which he is put down as consistently pro-Ally, from the pen of Msgr. Cyril Slogurney N. Fay, now in Washington, and recently returned from Rome. Msgr. Fay shows that autocracy has always been the enemy of the church and so continues in the person of the Kaiser, and then adds:

The Pope has had one salient chance to show on which side his sympathy lay. That was when Jerusalem was captured by the British. At the very moment when, by his special order, the church bells were ringing with joy that Jerusalem had passed into Christian hands the Pope was being maligned and scorned for wishing to prevent the Holy City from remaining in Christian hands. It has been proved that the Catholic church can exist better, with more health and more vigor, in a free atmosphere than in an atmosphere of despotism. In despotic Byzantium it disappeared; in despotic Russia it was driven out; in the England of the Tudors it was beaten to earth; in France of Louis XIV. it was bound hand and foot. These are all incontrovertible reasons why the Pope should not desire to give over the world to an atheist who does not even profess the Catholic religion, but on the other hand professes to be the religious follower of the deadliest enemy the Catholic church has ever had. We have forgotten our religious disputes in the crisis of this war, and for many thanks. We are all trying to act together for the safety of this country and for a decisive and glorious victory for our cause. And are they then the friends of his country or its cause who misrepresent the Catholic religion and try to throw the apple of discord among those who should stand shoulder to shoulder against the common enemy?

INVADE INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS.

The opponents and supporters of the national war-time prohibition measure have come to an agreement fixing July 1, 1919, instead of January 1, as the day on which the bill shall go into effect. Now that the nation is at war, many restrictions on the freedom of individuals which in time of peace would be intolerable are necessary and lawful. But fanatical upholders of various kinds are taking advantage of wartime conditions to make unjustifiable invasions of private and individual rights. Nation-wide prohibition as understood and advocated by certain extremists among its promoters is unquestionably an invasion of individual rights. These fanatical upholders will leave nothing undone to accomplish their designs, but it is to be hoped that our legislators will not be carried away by the enthusiastic efforts of such supporters.

NEXT LIBERTY LOAN.

The campaign for the fourth Liberty Loan begins September 28 and closes October 19. Here the American people have a great inspiration for a great effort. The news from the battle front inspires every American heart, not only with pride and patriotism but with a great incentive to do his or her part. There is no shirking, no shifting of the individual burden, no selfishness by American soldiers in France; there should be here. We are both supporting the same country and the same cause—our army in one way, ourselves in another. Theirs is the harder part, but at least we can do our part as promptly and loyally and efficiently as they do theirs.

PRAY FOR THEM.

Don't forget to remember your soldier boys in your daily prayer. They are exposed to countless dangers of the body and the soul and they need every help that can come to them from above in the hour of their direst need. As the days and the weeks and the months pass by this hour of need is rapidly approaching more and more of them.

GERMANS ON RETREAT.

The best indication of the magnitude of the Allies' victory the past few weeks is the statement of Gen. March that the number of prisoners taken since July 1 has passed the 112,000 mark. In the same time the Allies have taken from the Germans 1,300 cannon of the field-gun caliber and larger. This is encour-

Don't Change Jobs Without Consulting Uncle Sam

THE Government asks the cooperation of all workers to do away with the unnecessary "turn-over" of labor. Since our entry into the war there has been a serious shifting of labor, which has greatly crippled essential war industries. If there can be an intelligent distribution of workmen to these industries there will be less difficulty in winning the war.

Therefore, to assist both workmen and employers, the Government has organized the U. S. Employment Service as a part of the Department of Labor. Its national office is in Washington, and it has 500 branch offices and 20,000 U. S. Public Service Reserve Enrollment Agents throughout the country. It knows labor conditions everywhere, and if given opportunity can direct the man seeking employment to just the job that needs him most.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

"Industry plays as essential and honorable a role in this great struggle as do our military armaments. We all recognize the truth of this, but we must also see its necessary implications—namely, that industry, doing a vital task for the nation, must receive the support and assistance of the nation."

"Therefore, I solemnly urge all employers engaged in war work to refrain after August 1st, 1918, from recruiting unskilled labor in any manner except through this central agency [U. S. Employment Service]. I urge labor to respond as loyally as heretofore to any calls issued by this agency for voluntary enlistment in essential industry. And I ask them both alike to remember that no sacrifice will have been in vain, if we are able to prove beyond all question that the highest and best form of efficiency is the spontaneous co-operation of a free people."

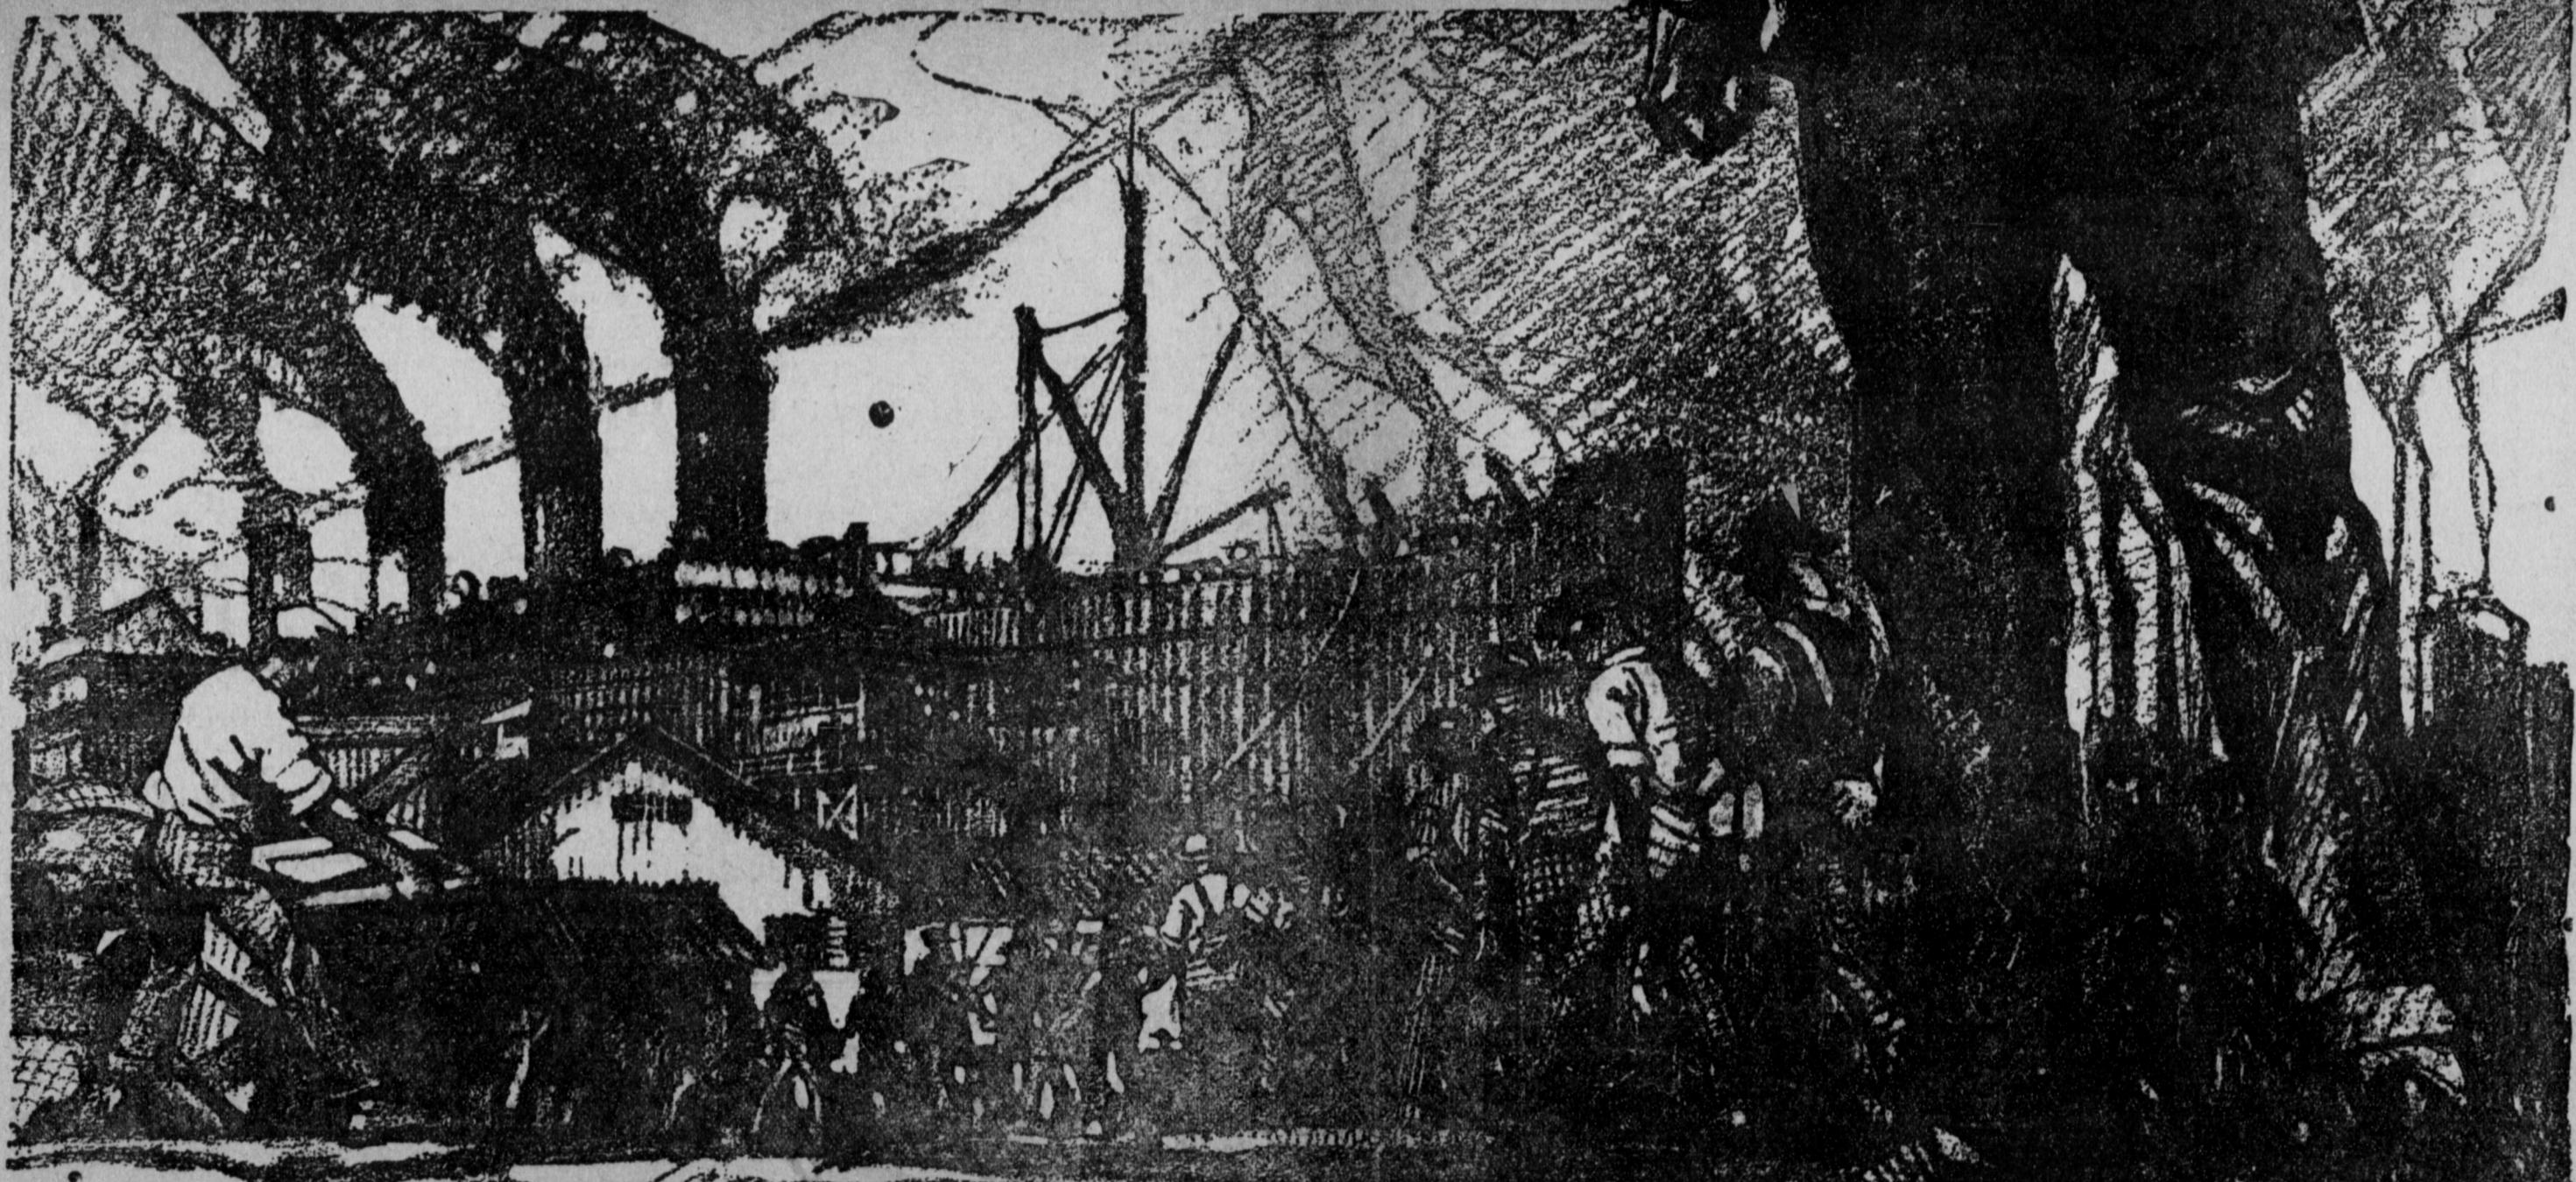

WOODROW WILSON.

Thus workmen benefit through having a far-reaching and thoroughly reliable placing organization, where they are assured of being sent to sure jobs—where they can do the best work to help win the war.

And the Government is enabled to fill the ranks with workers in such a way that all essential industries can be kept going full speed. This is vitally necessary to the success of our army in France.

If you are at present employed in useful work, do not change your job without consulting a branch office or enrollment agent of this service. Let your Government assist you in determining the work in which you will be most valuable in helping to win the war. Your use of the U. S. Employment Service is a patriotic duty to your country. It is your guarantee of fair and square treatment, and the opportunity to serve where you are best fitted.

Learn the Facts In the Gas Situation.

I am trying to give the Company's side of the gas controversy in signed statements in the daily newspapers.

Every man and woman in the city should be interested in this record of a service organization which has made every effort to be a useful public servant.

This Company has saved the people of Louisville millions of dollars in the past four and one-third years. Every big undertaking which it has accomplished has produced benefits of substantial value to the great majority of citizens.

This Company is striving to live up to the express terms of the franchise by securing permission to supplement the natural gas supply with manufactured gas next winter, in case of need. In the face of a national shortage, the situation is very serious.

To avoid widespread suffering and hardship next winter we want your help and co-operation.

Please read my statements in the daily newspapers.

Former County Secretary Dan O'Keefe is stationed at Camp Eustis, Va.

Division 3 met last night and heard reports from the Euchre Committee.

County President John Hennessy was unable to attend the ball team's reception, being on the injured list.

The Entertainment Committee for the reception to the ball team certainly left nothing to do all a good time.

Last week Mrs. D. J. Farrell was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary of South Omaha, and many spent an enjoyable evening at her home.

Mrs. Mary McWhorter, National President, says that history that will tell to future generations the caliber of the women who held membership in the ranks of the Ladies' Auxiliary in the stirring years commencing with Good Friday, 1918, and extending over the duration of the present war, is being made today.

In a stirring appeal to the Ladies' Auxiliary their National President thus urges the members: "In God's name, sisters, work for every patriotic endeavor unselfishly and devotedly." In order that the pages of the history that is to be written by Sister Gannon will be teeming with noble endeavor, a history that will add still another bright jewel to the brilliant crown that now adorns the fair brow of Mother Ireland."
